

School Board Election - Tuesday, September 9

Regardless of the school district in which you reside, Tuesday, September 9 is an important day! Every school district in Iowa will hold a school board election that day. The school board election is important because the school board sets the school vision for the school district. Displaced citizens are still eligible to vote. The information is posted on our website. Visit www.prairiepride.org and click on Community then Board of Education. You can also contact Linn County Elections at 892-5300.

In the College Community district, two seats are up for election.

Dot Pospischil and Tim Kilpatrick are running for the At Large seat vacated by Shirley Exline. In Director District #1, incumbent Greg Kelsey is running unopposed. All eligible voters in the district vote in each race.

Note: There are two changes that are new this year.

- Polls are open from noon to 8:00 pm
- All eligible voters may vote at ANY voting center with your school district.

If you live in the College Community District, you can vote at one of the voting centers listed below.
